REGULATION

ON THE BOOKS OF ACCOUNT AND ANNUAL REPORTS OF BANKS AND SAVINGS BANKS

1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 1 (content of regulation)

- (1) This regulation sets out in detail:
- (a) the content of the general ledger as it relates to the keeping of the books of account;
  - (b) the types and templates of the financial statements and consolidated financial statements of banks and savings banks (hereinafter: banks);
  - (c) the detailed content of the annual report and consolidated annual report of banks;
  - (d) the detailed content, form, method and frequency of and deadlines for the submission of financial information on an individual basis.
- (2) Wherever this regulation makes reference to the provisions of other regulations, these provisions shall apply in their wording applicable at the time in question.
- (3) The provisions of this regulation shall apply mutatis mutandis to branches of third-country banks.

Article 2 (definition of terms)

- (1) In this regulation the following abbreviated titles are used for European Union acts:
- (a) the IFRS are the International Financial Reporting Standards as adopted by the European Commission on the basis of Regulation (EC) No 1606/2002 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 19 July 2002 on the application of international accounting standards (OJ L 243/2002) and

THIS TEXT IS UNOFFICIAL TRANSLATION AND MAY NOT BE USED AS A BASIS FOR SOLVING ANY DISPUTE

Commission Regulation (EC) No 1126/2008 of 3 November 2008 adopting certain international accounting standards in accordance with Regulation (EC) No 1606/2002 (OJ L 320/2008), last amended by Commission Regulation (EC) No 2016/2067 of 22 November 2016 (OJ L 323/2016);

(b) Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 is Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013 on prudential requirements for credit institutions and investment firms and amending Regulation (EU) No 648/2012 (OJ L 176/2013);

(c) Directive 2013/36/EU is Directive 2013/36/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013 on access to the activity of credit institutions and the prudential supervision of credit institutions and investment firms, amending Directive 2002/87/EC and repealing Directives 2006/48/EC and 2006/49/EC (OJ L 176/2013);

(d) Regulation (EU) No 1024/2013 is Council Regulation (EU) No 1024/2013 of 15 October 2013 conferring specific tasks on the European Central Bank concerning policies relating to the prudential supervision of credit institutions (OJ L 287/2013);

(e) Commission Implementing Regulation (EU) No 680/2014 is Commission Implementing Regulation (EU) No 680/2014 of 16 April 2014 laying down implementing technical standards with regard to supervisory reporting of institutions according to Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council (OJ L 191/2014), last amended by Commission Implementing Regulation (EU) 2017/1443 of 29 June 2017 (OJ L 213/2017);

(f) Regulation (EU) No 468/2014 (ECB/2014/17) is Regulation (EU) No 468/2014 of the European Central Bank of 16 April 2014 establishing a framework for cooperation within the Single Supervisory Mechanism between the European Central Bank and national competent authorities and with national designated authorities (SSM Framework Regulation; ECB/2014/17; OJ L 141/2014).

(2) The terms used in this regulation shall have the same meanings as in the ZBan-2, Regulation (EU) No 575/2013, Regulation (EU) No 1024/2013 and Regulation (EU) No 468/2014 (ECB/2014/17), and in regulations issued on their basis.

Article 3

(transposition of EU directives and application of ZGD-1, IFRS and other regulations)

(1) This regulation transposes Articles 89 and 90 of Directive 2013/36/EU into the legislation of the Republic of Slovenia.

(2) The bank shall administer books of account and compile an annual report and a consolidated annual report in accordance with the Companies Act (Official Gazette of the Republic of Slovenia, Nos. 65/09 [official consolidated version], 33/11, 91/11, 31/12, 57/12, 44/13 [Const. Court dec.], 82/13, 55/15 and 15/17; hereinafter: the ZGD-1), the IFRS and other regulations, and this regulation.

(3) The bank shall compile a report on financial information on an individual basis in accordance with Commission Implementing Regulation (EU) No 680/2014.

2. KEEPING A GENERAL LEDGER

Article 4

(general)

(1) The bank shall administer a general ledger via the internal subsidiary account framework or bookkeeping items from which they can compile a recapitulation of the statement of financial position and the statement of comprehensive income, which is prepared in accordance with the methodology set out in Appendix 3 of the Guidelines for implementing the Regulation on reporting by monetary financial institutions of 5 December 2017, published on the Bank of Slovenia website (hereinafter: the guidelines for reporting by MFIs).

(2) The bank shall disclose bookkeeping items referred to in the first paragraph of this article in accordance with their content, and in so doing shall, in addition to the regulations referred to in Article 3 of this regulation, take account mutatis mutandis of the substantive definition of items, codes and value data of the report on bookkeeping items with interest rates referred to in the guidelines for reporting by MFIs.

3. ANNUAL REPORT AND CONSOLIDATED ANNUAL REPORT

Article 5 (general)

(1) The bank shall compile an annual report for the financial year consisting of a financial report and a business report. The financial report shall comprise a statement of financial position, a statement of profit or loss, a statement of comprehensive income, a statement of cash flows, a statement of changes in equity, and an appendix with notes to the financial statements.

(2) The bank shall compile a consolidated annual report for the financial year consisting of a consolidated financial report and a consolidated business report of the entities included in consolidation. The consolidated financial report shall comprise a consolidated statement of financial position, a consolidated statement of profit or loss, a consolidated statement of comprehensive income, a consolidated statement of cash flows, a consolidated statement of changes in equity, and an appendix with notes to the consolidated financial statements.

(3) The annual report and the consolidated annual report shall be approved by all members of the management board or the board of directors by means of their signatures. With this signature, members of the management board or the board of directors collectively confirm that annual reports with all parts, including corporate governance statement and non-financial statement, are prepared and published in accordance with the regulations referred to in the second paragraph of Article 3 of this regulation.

(4) The bank shall enclose the following in the annual report or the consolidated annual report:

- (a) an auditor's report,
- (b) information about the adoption of the annual report or consolidated annual report by the bank's governing body,
- (c) a proposal for the use of the distributable profit,
- (d) a report on relations with the controlling entity,
- (e) a statement or a report on non-financial operations, if the bank is obliged for its publication in accordance with the Article 70.c of ZGD-1 and if it is not already included in the Business report of the bank from chapters 3.2 or 3.4 of this regulation.

3.1. Financial report

Article 6

(types and layouts of financial statements)

(1) The financial statements shall be included by the bank in the financial report in the prescribed templates given in the appendix to this regulation, which are an integral part of this regulation. The financial statements comprise a statement of financial position, a statement of profit or loss, a statement of comprehensive income, a statement of cash flows (according to Variant I or Variant II) and a statement of changes in equity.

(2) Items of the income statement may be included by the bank in the financial report in a statement of comprehensive income instead of an income statement.

(3) The content of individual items and the method for compiling the financial statements are defined by the IFRS and this regulation.

Article 7

(compilation of financial statements)

(1) The bank shall compile the statement of financial position on the basis of data from the report on bookkeeping items with interest rates and the methodology prescribed by the Bank of Slovenia via guidelines published on its website.

(2) The bank shall compile the income statement on the basis of accounting data on income and expenses included in profit or loss from the report on bookkeeping items with interest rates and the methodology prescribed by the Bank of Slovenia via guidelines published on its website.

(3) The bank shall compile the statement of comprehensive income itemised into net profit or loss during the accounting period and income and expenses included in other comprehensive income, separately itemised into items that will not be reclassified to profit or loss and items that may subsequently be reclassified to profit or loss, in the manner proceeding from the template of the statement of comprehensive income, on the basis of bookkeeping data on income and expenses included in profit or loss and other comprehensive income from the report on bookkeeping items with interest rates and the methodology prescribed by the Bank of Slovenia via guidelines published on its website. Should a bank include items of profit or loss referred to in the second paragraph of this article in a statement of comprehensive income instead of a statement of profit or loss, it shall enter them before Item 1 NET PROFIT (LOSS) FOR THE FINANCIAL YEAR in the statement of comprehensive income, with the exception of the indicators "Basic earnings per share" and "Diluted earnings per share", which shall be included after Item 5 TOTAL COMPREHENSIVE INCOME FOR THE FINANCIAL YEAR AFTER TAX, the bank renumbering the items in the template as appropriate. In the case referred to in the previous sentence the bank may itemise in greater detail the items of the statement of comprehensive income that relate to individual components of accumulated other comprehensive income (Items 4.1.1, 4.1.2, 4.1.3, 4.1.4, 4.2.1, 4.2.2, 4.2.3, 4.3.1, 4.3.2, 4.3.3, 4.4.1, 4.4.2 and 4.4.3), instead of disclosing them in the notes to statement of comprehensive income.

(4) The bank shall itemise the statement of cash flows into cash flows from operating activities, cash flows from investing activities and cash flows from financing activities. The bank shall compile the statement of cash flows according to Variant I or Variant II in a manner proceeding from the template of the statement of cash flows appended to this regulation:

THIS TEXT IS UNOFFICIAL TRANSLATION AND MAY NOT BE USED AS A BASIS FOR

(a) in Variant I of the statement of cash flows the bank use the direct method for the disclosure of cash flows from operating activities, such that the relevant items from the statement of profit or loss are supplemented with cash receipts and cash payments or changes in assets and liabilities associated with operating activities in the period for which the statement of cash flows is being compiled;

(b) in Variant II of the statement of cash flows the bank use the indirect method for the disclosure of cash flows from operating activities, such that the pre-tax profit is adjusted for effects not relating to cash flows from operating activities income and for unrealised effects from operating activities, and is supplemented by changes in assets and liabilities associated with operating activities in the period for which the statement of cash flows is being compiled;

(c) the bank use the direct method for disclosing cash flows from investing activities and cash flows from financing activities, irrespective of the chosen variant of the statement of cash flows;

(d) the bank take account of cash equivalents in the statement of cash flows in accordance with their accounting policies. Financial assets whose maturity is no more than three months from the date of purchase are generally classed as cash equivalents.

(5) The bank shall compile the statement of changes in equity by entering the balance of individual components of equity from the previous financial year, the amounts of changes in individual components of equity in the accounting period, including the use of the net profit and the coverage of loss in the accounting period, and the balance of individual components of equity at the end of the accounting period. In an additional row the bank shall also disclose the amounts across individual components of equity from which the distributable profit or distributable loss for the accounting period for which the statement of changes in equity is being compiled is composed, should this not already be included among the notes to the statement of financial position in the notes to the financial statements.

(6) The bank shall enter the data from the audited financial statements of the previous financial year in the columns in the financial statements designated for amounts from the previous year. The bank may add columns for earlier financial years in the financial statements after the column for the previous year, and may add notes for the comparative periods in the notes to the financial statements.

(7) When a bank applies accounting policies retrospectively or restates or reclassifies individual items in the financial statements, it shall also adjust the amounts from the previous year or earlier years as appropriate to make them comparable with the amounts from the financial year in question, unless otherwise determined by IFRS. In the case referred to in the previous sentence the bank shall also add a column for the beginning of the first comparative period to which the change in question relates after the amount from the previous year or an earlier year in the statement of financial position, and notes for this comparative period in the notes to the statement of financial position.

(8) When a bank is using the enclosed templates of financial statements for the purposes of interim reporting, it shall enter data for the following periods:

(a) in the statement of financial position, data as at the end of the interim period (quarter, half-year) in question, and as at the end of the previous financial year;

(b) in the statement of profit or loss and the statement of comprehensive income, data for the interim period in question and cumulative data for the financial year in question until the given date, and data for comparable interim periods of the previous financial year (for example, in quarterly reporting this means data for the last quarter, cumulative data for the period from the beginning of the financial year to the end of the quarter in question, and data for the same period of the previous financial year);

THIS TEXT IS UNOFFICIAL TRANSLATION AND MAY NOT BE USED AS A BASIS FOR SOLVING ANY DISPUTE

(c) in the statement of cash flows and the statement of changes in equity, cumulative data for the financial year in question until the given date, and data for the comparable period of the previous financial year.

(9) The amounts in the financial statements shall be entered in thousands of euros.

(10) There shall be no need to disclose items in the financial statements where the amount is zero, except where necessary for comparison with the amount in the previous financial year. Items that are not material to a true and fair view of the bank's financial position, profit or loss and comprehensive income may be combined.

(11) Additional rows may be added to the templates of the financial statements in exceptional cases, for example business combinations, where such presentation of information is set out by the IFRS. In the insertion of additional rows into the templates of the statement of financial position and the statement of profit or loss, the layout set out by the methodology for compiling the statement of financial position and the statement of profit or loss prescribed by the guidelines referred to in the first and second paragraphs of this article shall be taken into account.

Article 8
(valuation of bookkeeping items)

The bank shall value bookkeeping items in accordance with the IFRS and the Regulation on credit risk management in banks and savings banks) (Official Gazette of the Republic of Slovenia, No. 68/17).

Article 9
(appendix with notes to the financial statements)

(1) In the appendix with notes to the financial statements the bank shall disclose the significant accounting policies on which their financial statements are based. The disclosure of accounting policies shall inter alia clarify any changes in accounting policy, the methods used for the valuation of individual items in the statement of financial position, the methods for calculating impairments of assets and any write-offs, the provisioning policy, the policy for the recognition of income and expenses, the bank's tax liabilities and the exchange rates at which sums in foreign currencies have been translated into sums in the domestic currency.

(2) The notes to the financial statements shall mutatis mutandis contain all the data and information prescribed by the ZGD-1, and the other disclosures required by the IFRS and other regulations.

(3) The bank shall additionally disclose the following in the notes to the statement of financial position:

- (a) the proportion of financial assets that constitutes subordinated liabilities at the issuer;
- (b) a review of commitments given and derivatives outstanding as at the balance sheet date that are administered in off-balance-sheet records, with the amount broken down by type of instrument. The bank separately cite instruments used for hedging against interest rate risk, currency risk and other market risks, and those held for trading purposes;
- (c) total amount of subordinated liabilities and for each new borrowing in the financial year that exceeds 10% of the total amount of subordinated liabilities, the amount of borrowing, the nominal currency, the interest rate, the maturity date, the conditions of subordination and the existence of any provisions for the conversion of the subordinated liabilities into equity or into any other liabilities;

(d) detailed data on the assets pledged by the bank as collateral for its liabilities or for the liabilities of third parties;

(e) data on movements in allowances and provisions for credit losses;

(f) data on the total amounts of assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies translated into thousand euros;

(g) when the bank provides investment services and products, data on brokerage operations with clients for which it provides services pursuant to the Financial Instruments Market Act (Official Gazette of the Republic of Slovenia, Nos. 108/10 [official consolidated version], 78/11, 55/12, 105/12 [ZBan-1J], 63/13 [ZS-K], 30/16 and 9/17; hereinafter: the ZTFI), namely services for clients from the reception and transmission of orders, the execution of orders, and the management and custody of financial instruments. Data on claims and liabilities of accounts in which the bank administers the cash of clients from brokerage transactions at the end of the financial year in question and the previous financial year should be itemised into the items cited in the appendix to this regulation (Brokerage operations);

(h) data on significant transactions that the bank provides for the account of clients (on syndicated and other loans, commission transactions in coins and cheques, and other transactions for the account of clients) should they not be included in the data under point (g) of this article.

(4) The bank shall additionally disclose the following in the notes to the statement of profit or loss:

(a) data on income and expenses that the bank generates on foreign markets, when these account for a significant proportion of total income and expenses;

(b) data on income from the provision of managerial and representative services to third parties. When the bank provides investment services and products, separate data on income and expenses from fees and commission deriving from the provision of investment services and products for the financial year in question and the previous financial year, which should be itemised into the items cited in the appendix to this regulation (Income and expenses from fees and commission in connection with investment services and products);

(c) data on expenses paid by the bank that derive from subordinated liabilities.

4. REPORTING OF FINANCIAL INFORMATION ON AN INDIVIDUAL BASIS

Article 22

(mandatory reporters and extent of reporting)

(1) The bank or the branch of a bank of a non-participating Member State or a third country, subject to prudential requirements in accordance with Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 on an individual basis shall submit a report on financial information on an individual basis to the following extents:

(a) a bank that does not have the position of a parent bank or a subsidiary and is not part of a supervised group, but is a significant supervised entity: in the extent set out in point d) of the first paragraph of Article 24 of this regulation;

(b) a branch of a bank of a non-participating Member State or a third country that is a significant supervised entity: in the extent set out in point d) of the first paragraph of Article 24 of this regulation, except financial information in templates 17.1, 17.2, 17.3, 40.1 and 40.2;

(c) a bank that has the position of an EU parent bank and is a significant supervised entity: in the extent set out in point c) of the first paragraph of Article 24 of this regulation;

(d) a bank that is a subsidiary of an EU parent bank or an EU parent financial holding company or EU parent mixed financial holding company and is a significant supervised entity or part of a significant supervised group: in the extent set out in point c) of the first paragraph of Article 24 of this regulation;

(e) a bank or a subsidiary of a bank from non-participating Member State or a third country, which is not captured in points a) to d) of this paragraph: in the extent set out by point a) of Article 24 of this regulation.

(2) Notwithstanding the first paragraph of this article, the parent bank, that for prudential purposes uses the individual consolidation method in accordance with Article 9 of Regulation (EU) No. 575/2013, shall submit a report on financial information set out in point (c), (d) or (e) of the first paragraph of this article on an individual basis, using individual consolidation method.

(3) The bank referred to in points c) or d) of the first paragraph of this article shall submit, in addition to financial information for the bank on an individual basis, also financial information on an individual basis in the extent set out in point b) of the first paragraph of Article 24 of this regulation for each of its subsidiary credit institution of a non-participating Member State or third country, that the bank includes in prudential consolidation, provided that the balance sheet total of the subsidiary credit institution exceeds EUR 3 billion. When more than one bank or credit institution within the same supervised group is subject to fulfilment of prudential requirements on a consolidated basis in accordance with Regulation (EU) No. 575/2013, the requirement referred to in the first sentence of this paragraph shall apply only to the banks subject to prudential requirements at the highest level of the consolidation within the EU.

(4) Point e) of the first paragraph of this article notwithstanding, a bank shall be obliged to submit the report on financial information on an individual basis in the extent set out in point c) of the first paragraph of Article 24 of this regulation when its balance sheet total exceeds EUR 1 billion.

Article 23

(start or end of reporting with regard to criterion of balance sheet total)
