Republika Slovenija ob 150. obletnici Rdečega križa na Slovenskem izdaja zbirateljske kovance, na katerih je glavni motiv mreža, ki je tudi nosilka simbola organizacije, tj. križa. Mreža kot motiv predstavlja delovanje in pomoč organizacije, ki je v veliki meri podprta z delom prostovoljcev.

To mark the 150th anniversary of the Red Cross in Slovenia, the Republic of Slovenia is issuing collector coins whose main motif is a net carrying the symbol of the organisation, i.e. a cross. The net motif signifies the actions and support of the organisation, which is largely supported by the work of volunteers.

150. OBLETNICA RDEČEGA KRIŽA NA SLOVENSKEM

Začetki Rdečega križa na Slovenskem segajo v leto 1866, ko je bilo v Ljubljani ustanovljeno »Žensko društvo za pomoč ranjenim in bolnim vojakom ter vdovam in sirotam padlih vojakov«, leta 1879 pa še »Moško društvo za podporo in postrežbo ranjenih in bolnih vojakov«. Društvi sta se združili leta 1902 in delovali kot del avstro-ogrskega društva Rdečega križa. Zbirali so denarne in druge prispevke ter sodelovali na področju zdravstva, prava in računovodstva. Predvsem so delovali na humanitarnem področju (brezplačna kuhinja, bolnišnice, zbiranje oblačil ipd.) med vojno in tudi v času miru.

Rdeči križ Slovenije je bil ustanovljen 18. junija 1944 na osvobojenem ozemlju v Gradacu v Beli krajini. Je neodvisna, humanitarna organizacija nacionalnega pomena, organizirana kot enotno društvo, ki deluje v 12 regijah z več kot 14 tisoč prostovoljci. RKS po javnem pooblastilu opravlja vrsto nalog, kot so krvodajalstvo, usposabljanje za prvo pomoč, pomoč socialno ogroženim osebam ter pripravljenost in odziv na naravne in druge nesreče. Deluje v skladu s sedmimi temeljnimi načeli gibanja Rdečega križa, ki so humanost, nepristranskost, nevtralnost, neodvisnost, prostovoljnost, enotnost in univerzalnost. Je sestavni del mednarodnega gibanja Rdečega križa in Rdečega polmeseca ter v sodelovanju z nacionalnimi organizacijami in drugimi humanitarnimi, zdravstvenimi in socialnimi organizacijami doma in v tujini z močjo humanosti izboljšuje življenje ranljivih ljudi.

Rdeči križ Slovenije je v 150-letni zgodovini pomembno prispeval k izboljšanju kakovosti življenja številnih družin in posameznikov, ki so bili v stiski – ne glede na raso, spol, jezik, vero ali druga prepričanja.

150TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE RED CROSS IN SLOVENIA

The beginnings of the Red Cross in Slovenia came in 1866, when the Women's Society for Aiding Injured and Sick Soldiers and Widows and Orphans of Fallen Soldiers was founded, followed by the Men's Society for Supporting and Serving Injured and Sick Soldiers in 1879. The two societies merged in 1902, and acted as part of the Austro-Hungarian Red Cross. They collected money and other contributions, and were active in the areas of health, law and accounting. Above all they worked on humanitarian causes (free kitchens, hospitals, clothes collections, etc.) during wartime and peacetime alike.

The Slovenian Red Cross was founded on 18 June 1944, in the liberated territory of Gradac in Bela Krajina. It is an independent, humanitarian organisation of national import, organised as a single society active in 12 regions with more than 14,000 volunteers. The Slovenian Red Cross carries out a range of tasks under public authorisation, such as organising blood donation, conducting first aid training, providing aid to the socially disadvantaged, and preparing for and responding to natural and man-made disasters. It acts in accordance with the seven fundamental principles of the Red Cross movement: humanity, impartiality, neutrality, independence, voluntary service, unity and universality. It is a member of the International Red Cross and Red Crescent Movement, and is dedicated to using the power of humanity to improve the lives of vulnerable people, in conjunction with national organisations and other humanitarian, health and social organisations at home and abroad.

In its 150 years of history the Slovenian Red Cross has made a significant contribution to improving the quality of life of countless families and individuals in distress, irrespective of race, gender, language, faith or other beliefs.
